

I am in complete opposition to the Consumer Bankers Association's (CBA) attempt to weaken Indiana's Telephone Privacy Law. I resent the gall of these bankers believing they have the right to disturb past/present customers with phone calls, particularly those who registered with the Attorney General's office to avoid these interruptions. PLEASE don't allow our incoming phone calls to be at the mercy of these unrelentless businesses. Thank You.